

Bruno Caldeira

Portugal

Proposer: Instituto de Mediação e Arbitragem de Portugal

Secunder: Niall Kearney (UK)

Psychologist, mediator, trainer and President of the Association for Conflict Mediators in Portugal. Involved in RJ since 2001 and in the EFRJ since 2006. Interested in promoting closer regional dialogue between the EFRJ and national institutions – both public and private - taking advantage of the EFRJ's associates and national synergies.

Beata Czarnecka-Dzialuk

Poland

Proposer: Polish Centre for Mediation

Secunder: Martin Wright (UK)

Associate professor, Institute of Law Studies, Polish Academy of Sciences and Criminal Law Unit, Ministry of Justice. Member, Advisory Social Board on Alternative Disputes Resolution and team drafting alternatives regarding juvenile offenders. Founding member, Polish Centre of Mediation. PhD in Law, qualified judge, trained mediator. Interested in promoting RJ practices, drafting legal regulations and research.

Annemieke Wolthuis

Netherlands

Proposer: John Blad (Netherlands)

Secunder: Rob van Pagee (Netherlands)

Researcher, Netherlands Open University, focussing on RJ for young people in Netherlands from international comparative law perspective. Member, editorial board of Dutch/Flemish RJ journal and affiliated with Verwey-Jonker Research Institute, Utrecht. Interested in assisting EFRJ with considerations regarding children's/human rights perspective and from practical RJ experience.

Gert Jan Slump

Netherlands

Proposer: John Blad (Netherlands)

Secunder: Rob van Pagee (Netherlands)

Criminologist, researcher, independent consultant in Amsterdam, working partly with Dutch RJ Forum and Avans University of Applied Science (Centre for Safety Issues), Hertogenbosch. Previous experience includes victims support scheme co-ordinator. Involved in RJ since 1989. Interested in enlarging public awareness/support for RJ and its further implementation and innovation in Europe.