ON MOVING FORWARD ...

The European Forum for Restorative Justice is happy to announce that it is organising the 2007 summer school 'On Moving Forward'.

The summer school will be held in Riga (Latvia) and will take place from 27 June till 1 July.

The summer school's purpose is threefold:

- ⊗ to provide a supportive environment for trainers and mediators to share their experiences of training modules and methodological skills in mediation
- ⊗ to explore and adapt the European Forum recommendations on training programmes
- ⊗ to motivate trainers and mediators to have more international exchange.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES...

At the end of this summer school, participants will be able to:

- ⊗ use supervision more effectively
- ⊗ develop as reflective practitioners and trainers
- ⊗ summarise the research needs of practice
- ⊗ devise methods to monitor and evaluate training and practice
- ⊗ identify opportunities for training and service development
- ⊗ apply a framework for safe practice across a range of areas
- ⊗ benefit professionally and personally from informal international exchange
