

Draft Agenda
Summer School

The victims directive - challenges and opportunities for RJ

13- 17 July 2015

Lisbon

OBJECTIVES

- Locate RJ against the backdrop of the Victims Directive
- Articulate a victim perspective for a range of RJ contexts
- Produce a good practice checklist for working with victims in within a RJ framework

Monday 13

13:00 - 14:00 Registration
14.00 - 16.00 Welcome, introduction and orientation
16.00 - 17.00 Practical exercise: "Victims needs and expectations"

Tuesday 14

09.00 - 13.00 Theories and practice in working with victims (Why do we have a victims directive and where does RJ fit in?)
Working groups in "World cafes": 3 questions for each group on meanings and influence of the victim's directive for practical work
13.00 - 14.00 Lunch break
14.00 - 15.00 Preparing victim appreciative enquiry for visits to agencies

Wednesday 15

09.00 - 15.00 Visits to agencies
15.30 - 17.00 Review visits - present learning and experiences

Draft Agenda

Summer School

Thursday 16 Conference: Going Forward with the EU Victims' Directive (EFRJ & APAV)

09.00 - 09:30	Registration
09:30 - 09:35	Welcome
09:35 - 09:45	APAV & Victims; Directive - Challenges
09:45 - 09:55	EFRJ & Victims' Directive - Challenges
09:55 - 10:00	Orientation
10:00 - 11:00	Workshops on innovative practice in working with victims
11:00 - 11:15	Break
11:15 - 12:15	Workshops on RJ & Victims: what does good practice look like?
12:15 - 13:00	Feedback and plenary
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 14:10	Opportunities for Victims in Portugal
14:10 - 14:20	Opportunities for RJ in Portugal -
14:20 - 15:20	Workshops on evaluating impact of working with victims
15:20 - 15:30	Break
15:30 - 15:50	Feedback and plenary
15:50 - 16:00	Conclusion
20.00	Summer school dinner

Friday 17

09.30 - 12.30	Consolidation - What do you take home with you?
12:30 - 13:00	Lunch and farewell

Further changes may be made to the agenda

Please visit the EFRJ for further information

www.euforumrj.org