XXXVth International Congress on Law and Mental Health – Call For Abstracts

The International Academy of Law and Mental Health will have its XXXVth Congress in Prague, from the 9th-14th July 2017. The Congress will be held at the faculty of law of the renowned Charles University, with the co-chair of the meeting being Rector Tomas Zima.

We are now at the early planning stages of constructing the scientific programme. Several sessions are dedicated to the field of Restorative interventions and processes. Researchers and practitioners in the field who are interested in presenting their work can send an abstract of 200 words in the attached form. The form shall be sent to esther.friedman@lnu.se no later than the 5th of December 2015.

For more information about the congress, please contact Ms.Kristina D'Orsi, Associate Executive Director of the International Academy of Law and Mental Health
