

Restorative Justice and Mentally Disordered Offenders: Theory and Practice

Panel Workshop

EFRJ conference Leiden, 24 June 2016

vanderwolf@law.eur.nl

Background

Interest from the RJ community in including md offenders in RJ activities

‘Dignity and equality – RJ and vulnerable groups’
Before/instead of sentencing

+

Interest from Forensic Mental Health Services in (the therapeutic effects of) RJ
During execution of the sentence

=

Program

Restorative Justice and mentally disordered offenders:
A confrontation of a 'pure RJ model' with current CJS routines
John Blad & Michiel van der Wolf

Finding a place for restorative justice in forensic mental health:
The first trial of the Sycamore Tree Program in a UK setting
Finlay Wood, Gerard Drennan, Fiona Wood & Joel Harvey

Contact between victims and mentally disordered offenders:
A guideline, results and ethical dilemma's
Mariette van Denderen, Nienke Sweers & René Bax

Discussion